Availability of adequate committed liquidity lines as at end of March 2019

In order to cope with possible swings in financing needs, Leonardo can leverage:

- o 31 March cash balance of € 1.0 bn
- Credit lines worth € 2.5 bn (confirmed and unconfirmed)
- The Revolving Credit Facility signed on 14 February 2018 amounts at € 1.8 bn with a margin of 75bps and will expire in 2023
- Bank Bonding lines of approximately €
   2.8 bn to support Leonardo's commercial activity

- (1) Based on rating as of 31/03/2019
- (2) Average. Expected to be renewed at maturity

IFRS 16

- IFRS 16 redefines recording methods of operating leases in the financial statements imposing a single recognition method for all types of leasing, with the consequent recognition in the balance sheet of the tangible assets and liabilities for future payments
- The main impacts deriving from the application of the new principle are:
  - recording of non-current assets equal to rights of use on tangible and intangible assets against existing leasing contracts
  - o recognition of financial liabilities equal to the present value of future rentals
- The Group has applied this principle starting from 1st January 2019
- The estimated impact on the Group Financial Debt for FY 2019 will be ca. € 0.4-0.5 bn

SAFE HARBOR STATEMENT

NOTE: Some of the statements included in this document are not historical facts but rather statements of future expectations, also related to future economic and financial performance, to be considered forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are based on Company's views and assumptions as of the date of the statements and involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results, performance or events to differ materially from those expressed or implied in such statements. Given these uncertainties, you should not rely on forward-looking statements.

The following factors could affect our forward-looking statements: the ability to obtain or the timing of obtaining future government awards; the availability of government funding and customer requirements both domestically and internationally; changes in government or customer priorities due to programme reviews or revisions to strategic objectives (including changes in priorities to respond to terrorist threats or to improve homeland security); difficulties in developing and producing operationally advanced technology systems; the competitive environment; economic business and political conditions domestically and internationally; programme performance and the timing of contract payments; the timing and customer acceptance of product deliveries and launches; our ability to achieve or realise savings for our customers or ourselves through our global cost-cutting programme and other financial management programmes; and the outcome of contingencies (including completion of any acquisitions and divestitures, litigation and environmental remediation efforts).

These are only some of the numerous factors that may affect the forward-looking statements contained in this document. The Company undertakes no obligation to revise or update forward-looking statements as a result of new information since these statements may no longer be accurate or timely.
