

POSITION DESCRIPTION

1 July 2022

Position Overview

Position Title: Technician
Department/Project: MRO			Site Location: Fishermans Bend
Reporting Manager: Workshop Manager			Employment Status: Full-time (FTE 1.0)
Employee Name:		Ongoing		Fixed	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Temporary

General Position Summary & Purpose:

The Technician is directly responsible for performing tasks for the Maintenance, Repair and Overhaul (MRO) of helicopter components according to specific safety, quality and timely standards (Part-145 environment).

Key Responsibilities / Task Areas of Position:

Key responsibilities for this position include:

- Perform work in a safe and timely manner
- Perform range of tasks including mechanical assembly, parts cleaning, surface preparation and repair
- Understanding of aviation standards and Leonardo Australia procedures
- Adequate communication and literacy skills (verbal and written)
- Understanding of relevant maintenance work practices for aviation parts and components
- Maintain competence and authorisation as a Technician
- Ability to perform maintenance tasks according to task instructions to the standard specified
- Complete fully and correctly maintenance records, including 'sign-off' tasks within authorisation scope
- Understand tool and equipment serviceability and calibration
- Maintain cleanliness of work area at all times
- Undertake theoretical, practical and On-The-Job training as required
- Understand own human performance and limitations
- Knowledge of human factors, human performance, and limitations
- Ability to identify and report non-conformances, maintenance errors, and data discrepancies to support continuous improvement

Formal Education/Certification/Clearance Requirements:

- Australian Citizen with National Police Clearance
- Trade Certificate – Engineering, Mechanical, Automotive or similar technical discipline
- Adhere to Drug and Alcohol Management Plan (DAMP) policy
- Proof of COVID vaccination

Professional/Technical Experience Requirements:

Our ideal candidate:

- At least 3 years of relevant trade experience in an aviation mechanical environment
- Ability to use standard tools and special tools, and operate industrial plant
- Ability to work in accordance with maintenance data
- Knowledge of human factors, human performance and limitations
- Understanding of professional integrity, behaviour and attitude towards safety
- Working knowledge of Part-145 desirable
- Strong ability to work within a team environment
- Fluent in English, with excellent communication skills
- Flexible to train & communicate with our international team members