

Cybertech Europe (Rome, October 3rd and 4th) is back to explore innovation and new possibilities in cyber technology with European leaders and pioneering enterprises

ROME, Italy (September 27, 2023) – Following a highly successful fifth edition in 2022, Cybertech Global, the cyber industry's foremost B2B networking platform conducting industry-related events all around the globe, and Leonardo, a global player in the aerospace, defense, and security sectors, announced today the speakers of Cybertech Europe 2023. The sixth edition of this go-to event will be held on October 3 and 4, 2023, at La Nuvola Convention Center (Viale Asia, 40/44, 00144 Rome, Italy) and will feature a grand exhibition hall, cutting-edge conferences and lectures, and sector-specific special events with the most influential and eminent leaders in cyber fields.

The two-day event offers participants engagement with the most innovative approaches to cyber by some of the most prominent experts and companies from the industry while creating new business opportunities. According to data, the Italian market is rapidly growing (+18%), but so are threats (+8,4%)<sup>1</sup>. The conference will revolve around the latest in protection and security with topics including active defense and zero trust while providing a window into the future with supertech and next-gen technologies like advanced machine learning and AI. It will also include regional and industry-specific sessions on various topics such as cloud security, finsec, space, critical infrastructures, maritime and transportation security, and cyber investments, and will explore the EU Cybersecurity Strategic Framework and European Cyber Defence projects, including AI for Cyber & Cyber for AI, and Fintech Security. In addition, as we navigate the 2023 European Year of Skills, the event will also explore the cybersecurity skills shortage, competence, and the role of diversity and fostering new talents.

Cybertech Europe 2023 hosts the most esteemed people in the cyber sector: global leaders, authoritative experts, decision-makers, CISOs, C-level executives, industry pioneers from Europe and around the world, and guests' innovative startups showcasing next-generation technologies. The event will also see the participation of significant European bodies and organizations. These include the European Commission, NATO, the European Defence Agency (EDA), the European Space Agency (ESA), the European Union Aviation Safety Agency (EASA), Italy's National Cybersecurity Agency (ACN), the European Cyber Security Organisation (ECISO), Women4Cyber Foundation, and more.

The speaker line-up includes Guido Crosetto, Italian Minister of Defence; Bruno Frattasi, Director General, National Cybersecurity Agency (ACN), Italy; Roberto Cingolani, CEO and General Manager, Leonardo; Mauro Macchi, CEO, Accenture; Ivano Gabrielli, Director, Postal Police and Communications Service, Italy; Eva Chen, CEO and Co-Founder, Trend Micro.
